

Table of Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviations	ix

Part.1

INTRODUCTION INTO SPORTS LAW THEORY

I. Introduction of Sports Law	3
1. Lex Sportiva and Sport Institutions	4
1.1. The athletic act from a legal perspective	4
2. Sports rules as rules of Law	5
2.1. The principle of effective cause in sports	5
2.2. Sports rules as a legal rule of sport	7
3. Theory of sports organisation	9
3.1. Lex Mercatoria and Lex Sportiva	10
3.2. Lex Sportiva and traditional legal orders	11
4. Sporting Contest: As a cause -generating rules of law	13
4.1. Generating cause	13
4.2. Ludica theory and Lex Sportiva	15
4.3. Homo Loudens theory and Lex	18
II. Lex Sportiva - Lex Olympica and International Sports Law	21
1. Subjects of International Law	21
2. International law vs. domestic- national law	24
3. Enforcement of international law	25
4. International Sports Law, or “unethnic” Sports Law? Lex Sportiva-Olympica?	26
4.1. Features	26
4.2. A new species of internationalized sports law	28
4.3. Lex Sportiva – Lex Olympica: an unethnic Law of International Practice	29
5. Lex Sportiva a Category of Sports Law, Ludica Isn’t Lex	32
III. Italian Sport Reform – An epochal turning point still in stand	33
1. Introduction.	33
2. The “new” sport worker and the abolition of sports tied contract.	36
3. Paralympics.	38
4. News on sports company law	38
5. Other news: sports agents, facilities, gender violence and winter sports.	39

6. Doubts and criticisms. Conclusive considerations.	42
--	----

Part.2

ETHICAL AND LEGAL RESPONSIBILITY IN SPORTS

I. Some Consideration about Sport as Intrinsically Ethical Activity	49
1. Introduction.	49
2. The ethical nature of sport within sports legal systems.	50
2.1 What is the founding value of sport?	52
2.2 Issues.	53
3. Sport within state and/or international legal systems.	54
3.1 Sport and state legal systems.	55
3.2 Legal Issues.	56
4. Further issues	58
II. Ethical and Legal Responsibility in International Sports	63
1. Introduction.	63
2. Deontology and Ethics in Sports World.	65
2.1 Deviant and Criminal Behavior in Professional Sports	75
2.2 The Legal Nature of Professional Sports and Liability for Unlawful Behavior	78
3. Corruption in Professional Sports	89
3.1 Concept and Extent of Corruption in International and Professional Sports	89
3.2 Criminal Charity and Money Laundering in Professional Sports.	101
3.3 Sports and Illegal Gambling	113
4. Manipulation of the Results of Sports Competitions	127
5. Corruption and Embezzlement during the Construction of Sports Facilities during the Olympic Games and FIFA World Cup (On the Example of Russia)	142
III. Sports Criminology	154
1. Introduction	154
2. Sports Criminology: Theory and Methodology	155
3. Contents of sports criminology	156
4. Types of Sports Crimes	160

IV. Implementation of Wada Code in the Greek Sports
Legal Order	165
1. Introduction	165
2. Greek Anti-Doping Rules – LAW 4791/2021.	166
i. Definitions.	166
ii. Prohibited List.	166
iii. Strict liability.	166
iv. Burdens and Standard of Proof.	166
v. Mandatory Provisional Suspension after an Adverse Analytical Finding or Adverse Passport Finding.	167
vi. Results Management - Right to a fair hearing and notice of hearing decision.	167
vii. Automatic disqualification of results.	168
viii. Sanctions on individuals.	168
ix. Elimination of the period of ineligibility where there is no fault.	168
x. Contaminated products.	169
xi. Results management – Appeals.	169
xii. Automatic binding effect of decisions by signatory anti-doping organizations.	169
3. CAS 2018/A/5651 Georgios Kostakis v. Hellenic National Council for Combating Doping	170
V. The Protection of Intersex and Transgender Athletes from Discrimination under the European Convention on Human Rights	172
1. Introduction	173
2. The conditions for determining whether there is discrimination under Article 14 of the ECHR	175
2.1. Whether the alleged claim falls within the ambit of one of the substantive provisions of the ECHR in conjunction with Article 14	177
2.2. Whether there is a differential treatment for individuals by the state parties or non-state actors within its jurisdiction	179
2.3. Whether the person concerned is treated differently compared to others in a similar or analogous situation to him or her	182
2.4. Whether there is an objective and reasonable justification	183
3. The protection of intersex and transgender athletes against discrimination based on their gender identity and sex characteristics in light of the ECHR.	186

Part.3

CONTRACTS OF PROVIDING AND OFFERING SPORTS SERVICES

I. The Legal Nature of the Professional Player’s Contract In Light of the French and Kuwaiti Laws	197
Introduction	197
I. The Dispute on the Legal Nature of the Professional Player’s Contract	198
1. Professional Player as a Contracting Contract	200
1.1 Demonstrating that the Professional Player's Contract is a Contracting Contract	200
1.2 Criticism of those who support the view of the Professional Player's Contract as a Contracting Contract	202
2. Professional Player Contract as an Employment Contract	204
2.1 Demonstrating that the Professional Player's Contract is an Employment Contract	204
2.2 Criticisms of the Professional Player's Contract as an Employment Contract and Responding to it	208
II. Similarities and differences between a Professional Player’s Employment Contract and an Employment Contract	212
1. Common Characteristics of a Professional Player's Employment Contract and an Employment Contract	212
2. Distinctive Features of a Professional Player's Contract	215
Conclusion	219
II. Protection of Professional Players	223
Introduction	223
1. Scope of the protection of professional players	224
1.1 Protection of Athletes from unfair contract terms – excessive duration of the contractual commitment.	224
1.2 Rules for the activity of agents – Protection of minors.	228
1.3 Protection of Athletes during doping testing – personal data of athletes	229
2. Protection shortage and international legitimized basis for the Lex Sportiva	231
2.1 Personality of Athletes – The right to participate in the Olympic Games	231
2.2 Bargaining power of the Athletes against mandatory clause of arbitration	232
2.3 Personal and economic freedom in the international field of sport	234

2.4. Regulatory framework of the Lex Sportiva	237
--	-----

Part. 4 SPORTS ARBITRATION

I. Arbitral Jurisdiction in Sports Activities	243
1. Sporting jurisdiction	243
1.1. Concept	243
1.2. Definition	245
1.3. Competence of the sport arbitral organs to rule on the constitutionality of the law	246
2. Arbitral jurisdiction	247
2.1. Arbitration in Greece	247
2.2. International arbitration	249
3. Arbitration in sport	251
3.1. The International Sporting Jurisdictional System	251
3.2. The principle of excluding recourse to the national courts	254
II. The Judgment of Sport Jurisdiction Bodies on Doping Cases	258
Introduction	258
1. Combating Doping	259
2. International bodies vs national bodies	260
2.1. The case of Irene Kokkinariou	260
2.2. The case of Tatyana Chernova	261
3. WADA vs International body	263
3.1. The case of José Paolo Guerrero	263
3.2. The case of Damar Robinson	264
Conclusion	266
III. Protecting Human Rights, Competitive Equity, and Sports Integrity in Binary Athletic Competition in a Nonbinary World	267
1. Introduction	268
2. Historical IOC Athlete Eligibility Guidelines for Female Olympic and International Sports Competition, IF Rules, and CAS Jurisprudence	269
3. 2021 IOC Framework and Its Recommended Role in Future CAS Adjudications of the Legality of IF Athlete Eligibility Rules for Women's Sports Competitions and Events	281
3.1. Recommendations	284
4. U.S. Legal Process for Resolving Disputes Regarding Athlete Eligibility Rules for Female Olympic Sports and Judicial

Precedent Regarding Non-Olympic Sports	286
4.1 Professional Sports	288
4.2 High School Sports	288
3. 2022 NCAA Sport-specific Transgender Student-Athlete Participation Policy	290
IV. The Kiss That Kept the Precedent for Proportionality	292
1. Introduction	292
2. Gasquet’s Initial Hearing	294
3. Puerta: A Case Too Exceptional to be True	294
4. Changes to the WADC Take Place Following Puerta	297
5. Gasquet’s Case Shows that the Precedential Value of Puerta Remains	301
6. The WADC Continues to Be Revised	303
7. The Puerta Precedent Remains Despite Continued Revisions	308
8. Puerta Remains Valid Precedent Despite a Lie	310
V. The Development and Evolution of the Court of Arbitration for Sport and the Code of Sports-related Arbitration	316
1. Introduction	316
2. The General development of the Court of Arbitration for Sport	317
2.1 Brief introduction of CAS origin and development history	317
2.2 Foundation of CAS development	318
2.2.1 Swiss Law provide the basis for CAS	318
2.2.2 International sports autonomy system	318
2.3 Driving force of CAS development	319
2.3.1 Demand for international sport dispute resolution	319
2.3.2 Typical sports cases	320
3. Development and evolution of Code of Sports-related Arbitration	322
3.1 CAS Code of 2004 edition	322
3.2 CAS Code of 2010 edition	323
3.3 CAS Code of 2012 edition	323
3.4 CAS Code of 2013 edition	324
3.5 CAS Code of 2016 edition	325
3.6 CAS Code of 2017edition	326
3.7 CAS Code of 2019 edition	326
3.8 CAS Code of 2020 edition	328
4. Principles for the development and evolution of CAS and its Code	328
4.1 Enhance independence and impartiality	328
4.2 Improve arbitration efficiency	329
4.3 Increase transparency	330
4.4 Enhancing equal protection	331

4.5	Strengthening jurisdiction	332
-----	-----------------------------------	-----

Part. 5
SPORTS LAW AND MANAGEMENT

I.	Good Governance in National Sports Organizations: The Need For The Internal Dispute Resolution Procedures	337
1.	Good governance = “rule of the game”	338
2.	Good governance in sport as an EU value	344
3.	Internal dispute resolution procedure as a pillar of good governance in national sports organizations	349
II.	The Role of UNESCO in Supporting the Rights of Children	350
1.	Introduction	351
2.	Definition of concepts	353
3.	The most important international organizations that defended the right of the child to engage in physical activity	355
4.	Reference legal texts in international laws	358
5.	The most important decisions related to the rights of children to practice physical education during MINEPS meetings	360
6.	Has the Algerian national legislation ever contradicted the international legislation regarding the organization of physical education?	366
7.	The reality of physical education in Algeria	367
III.	Sports for All, the Right of the personal development and physical exercise	372
1.	The Right of the personal development and physical exercise	372
1.1.	Individual utilization and physical exercise	372
1.2.	Physical exercise, individual and public interest	375
1.3.	Personality development and satisfaction of individual interest	377
1.4.	Social benefit and public interest	380
	Conclusion	383
2.	Sports / Physical Exercise for Everyone in the Greek and international reality	384
2.1.	Historical data and institutional status	384
2.2.	Constitutional acquis	385
2.3.	Greek Legislative Practice for Sports / Physical Exercise for All	391
2.4.	Exercise and sports programs for all social groups at the

national level.	393
2.5. The types of sports / exercise programs for everyone	395
IV. Risk Management in Topsport	398
Introduction	398
1. Subjects of the risk	398
2. Understanding the meaning of management	400
3. Management tools	401
4. Risk Analysis and Risk Management managerial tasks	401
5. The professional risk of sport	404
6. Sports betting, gambling	412
7. Sporting event security risks	414
7.1 Responsibility of the organiser	415
7.2 Entry to the sports event	418
7.3 Prohibition	420
7.4 Camera surveillance	422
8. Spectator participation in the sporting event	423
9. The field of attacks against the traditional values of sport	424
9.1 Doping	424
9.1.1 Doping offences	425
9.1.2 Doping Control	426
9.1.3 Responsibilities of sports organisations in the fight against doping	427
9.1.4 Dangers of diversion, possible future of doping	427
9.2 Cheating	429
9.3 Match-fixing	430
9.3.1 Cases from the field of match fixing	434
9.4 Illegal sports betting	439
9.5 Gender hacking	440
9.6 Citius, Altius, Fortius?	441
V. Constitutional Chart of Sport Management for New Demands and Higher Expectations in International Practice	444
1. Human rights in sports action	445
1.1 Labour freedom and personality development	446
1.2 Restrictions of financial freedom in sports action	447
2. Legal order in international sports action	449
3. The need for specific regulation in the sector of sport management	450
4. Suggested fields for regulation by the Foundation Charter of sports management	451
4.1 Special framework of regulations for Football Managers	452
5. Legislation of sports in the European Union	454

VI. Sports Activities as a Lever for Tourism Development	456
1. Purpose and methodology of research	457
2. Descriptive results and answers comparison	458
3. Comparison of research hypothesis results	462
4. Comparison of important correlations	463

Part. 6

SPORTS LAW AND COVID-19

I. Impact of Coronavirus Global Health Emergency on Sports Law	473
1. State of the Art	473
2. Legal Implications of Sport as a Socio-Economic Sector	474
2.1. Impact on Sport as an industry	474
2.2. On the cancellation of sports events	476
2.2.1. The tricky concept of "force majeure" in private law	476
2.2.2. The Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) and "force majeure" cases	478
3. The Postponement of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games and its Effects	479
3.1. Significant precedents	479
3.1.1. Avian Influenza and SARS and the 2008 China Olympics	479
3.1.2. The "zika" virus outbreak and the Brazil 2016 Olympic Games	480
3.1.3. HIV/AIDS and the paradigm shift	481
3.2. Cancellation versus postponement of the Olympic Games	481
3.2.1. The controversial decision of the International Olympic Committee	481
3.2.2. Effects of the postponement	483
II. The Intervention of Public Administrations in Sport: Competences to Ensure the Impact of new Technologies within Sports Federations	487
1. Initial Status	488
2. Desenvolvimiento de la Figura En El Ámbito de las Federaciones Deportivas	490
3. Basic Regulatory Requirements	494
4. Specialities of The Treatments to Be Supervised	597

III. Civil liability caused by the outbreak of corona virus in sports law	501
Introduction	502
1. Civil liability caused by the outbreak of corona virus in sports law	502
1.1. Legislation	507
1.2. Mediation mechanism	508
1.3. The principle of fairness	509
2. Examining the legal aspects of liability for the transfer	509
2.1. There are differences regarding the compatibility of the "principle of fairness" and the "principle of Ex aequo et bono" and how it is used in arbitration or judgment.	509
IV. Athletes' Agreements and FIFA COVID-19 Guidelines & FIFA COVID-19 FAQ) – Hult Case	518
1. Professional athletes	519
2. Remunerated and professional athlete's agreement	521
3. Form – Terms on the agreement's validity	521
4. Remuneration - bonuses distributed to the athletes	522
5. Greek Law and Lex Sportiva (FIFA COVID-19 Guidelines & FIFA COVID-19 FAQ) – Hult Case	523
Bibliography	524